

We are recruiting Working Young Adults aged 18-30 years to create 10 Young Lives films

- Are you 18 – 30 years old?
- Do you work for at least 30 hours each week?
- Would you be interested in making a mini film about you and your job to inspire young people who are just starting their careers journey?
- Would you like to have a professionally edited short film to add to your CV?

Each selected Young Lives film maker will receive £50 for taking part.

Equal Vision are recruiting 10 young adults aged 18-30 to work with New Leaf Films to produce a short film about their job to be viewed by young people taking part in the Curiosity Museum Online careers programme.

What do we need from you?

- Enthusiasm about your experience of working in one of the job areas below
- Basic knowledge, skills and equipment in mobile phone film making
- Confidence to be yourself on camera
- Watch our filmmaking guide and complete a creative briefing task in a lunch-break or evening
- Film your ten clips over the course of one working day
- Select one day between 12th -25th April to complete your filming and tell your story

What do you get from us?

- We will edit your films into a short film so you don't need to have those skills
- A short professionally produced film to add to your CV
- Full training via digital workshop and live in-person support
- Participants will be paid £50 each when film clips have been submitted
